

Introduction

The Zero Table is a digital platform designed and managed by Cypher IT Solutions to facilitate cafes in managing their business details, sharing menus, and enhancing customer engagement. This document serves as an extensive legal framework governing the use of The Zero Table, covering privacy policies, terms of use, ownership rights, liability limitations, and more. By using our platform, you agree to abide by the terms outlined herein.

Important Notice: Until The Zero Table (The Zero Table India) is officially registered, all transactions, services, and operations related to The Zero Table are managed and handled by Cypher IT Solutions, the creator and operator of this platform. Any payments, legal matters, or service agreements fall under Cypher IT Solutions' jurisdiction.

Privacy Policy

Last Updated: 15th Jan 2025

1. Data Collection & Usage

We prioritize your privacy and transparency regarding how we handle user data. The Zero Table collects and processes data strictly for operational, security, and enhancement purposes.

1.1 Data We Collect

- Cafe Owners:
 - Name, email, business details, menu, social media links, uploaded images & text or any requested for service.
 - IP address and activity logs for security and analytics.
- Customers:
 - Email addresses through our optional subscription box.
 - Website usage data (e.g., page visits, time spent, and interactions etc).

1.2 How We Use Your Data

- To enable and enhance the platform's services.
- To allow cafes to manage and share their menus and business details with customers.
- To send promotional offers, updates, and occasional rewards.
- To analyze website traffic and improve user experience.
- To ensure security, detect fraud, and comply with legal obligations.

1.3 Data Sharing & Third-Party Involvement

- We do not sell user data to any third-party entities.
- We may share data with third-party service providers (e.g., hosting providers, analytics tools, payment processors) necessary for platform operation.
- If we decide to share data in the future, we will notify users and seek their explicit consent before proceeding.

1.4 Data Retention & Deletion Requests

- Users have the right to request data deletion at any time by contacting support.

- Email subscribers can opt out of promotional communications by unsubscribing.
- User accounts and associated data may be removed upon request, subject to verification.

1.5 Security Measures

- We always try to implement industry-standard security protocols to protect user data.
- However, we cannot guarantee absolute security, especially against sophisticated cyber threats, third-party data breaches, or user-side negligence.

1.6 Legal Compliance & Disclosures

- We will always try to comply with global data protection regulations, including GDPR, CCPA, and local privacy laws.
- If legally required, we may disclose data to government authorities or law enforcement agencies.

Terms & Conditions of Use

2.1 User Agreement

By accessing The Zero Table, you acknowledge and agree to these terms. Users who do not agree must refrain from using the platform.

2.2 Ownership & Intellectual Property Rights

- Cafe owners retain rights to the content they upload but must ensure compliance with copyright laws.
- Cypher IT Solutions holds exclusive rights over the platform's source code, UI designs, and proprietary software components.
- Redistribution, resale, or unauthorized modifications of the platform are strictly prohibited and may lead to legal action.

2.3 Limitation of Liability

- Platform Availability: We do not guarantee 24/7 uptime, and technical disruptions, maintenance, or external attacks may cause downtime.
- Service Downtime: There may be scheduled or unscheduled maintenance periods where the platform is temporarily unavailable. The Zero Table is not responsible for any financial loss, inconvenience, or operational disruptions resulting from downtime.
- User Content: We are not responsible for copyrighted, illegal, or offensive content uploaded by users.
- Third-Party Failures: We are not liable for service outages caused by third-party vendors (e.g., hosting providers, payment gateways).
- Data Loss or Security Breaches: While we implement strict security measures, we are not responsible for unauthorized access, hacking, or data breaches beyond our control.

2.4 Subscription & Promotions

- Users can subscribe to promotional emails to receive limited-time offers and rewards.
- Each promotional campaign will have its own specific terms, including eligibility and duration.
- Offers are not permanent, and recipients will be chosen randomly.
- The Zero Table reserves the right to modify or cancel offers without prior notice.

2.5 Account Termination & Restrictions

- We reserve the right to suspend or terminate accounts that violate our terms or engage in fraudulent, illegal, or unethical activities.
- Content violating copyright laws, containing hate speech, or promoting illegal activities may be removed without notice.

2.6 Governing Law & Jurisdiction

- These terms shall be governed by the laws of Surat, Gujarat, India.
- Disputes arising from the use of The Zero Table shall be subject to arbitration in Surat, unless legally mandated otherwise.

2.7 Indemnification Clause

- The Zero Table and Cypher IT Solutions shall not be held responsible for any legal claims, damages, or liabilities resulting from misuse of the platform by users.

- Users agree to indemnify and hold harmless The Zero Table against any losses, fines, or legal actions arising due to their activities on the platform.

2.8 Amendments to Terms

- The Zero Table reserves the right to update these terms at any time.
- Users continuing to use the platform after updates agree to abide by the revised terms.
